How much alcohol are you serving your guests?

Typically, each of these equals one standard drink and contains approximately one-half ounce of alcohol.

Standard Drink
A standard drink is a measure used to compare the alcohol content of various types of drinks. It is used in many countries to count the alcohol intake of guests.